

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOURTH YEAR CLOSSES WITH CELEBRATION AND EXCELLENT SALES

Art Market Hamptons 2014

Bridgehampton, June 17, 2014 – Art Market Hamptons closed its doors on Sunday, June 13, 2014 to excellent sales reports and memories of another fantastic art fair.

After the packed opening night with Norwood's specially curated evening of music, specialty cocktails and revelry in support of LongHouse Reserve, visitors continued to make their way to Art Market Hamptons throughout the weekend.

Visitors came with family and friends to enjoy this exclusive fair that only selects 40 exhibitors to have generous booths in our vaulted cathedral tents. The quality of collectors and attendees was notable throughout the run of the fair with celebrity sightings as well as many discerning art advisors as well as avid collectors.

Sales were excellent at close of the fair with new reports from the exhibiting galleries. Morgan Lehman Gallery sold two paintings by Paul Wackers as well as two pieces by David Raftman. They also noted selling a David S. Allee and a Cordy Ryman to notable Hamptons collectors. Forum Gallery sold two works to, "great clients to be cherished," and CATINCA TABACARU Gallery's vibrant booth sold two works by Tamara Mendels and a sculpture by Shinji Murakami. LOOC Art reported, "lots of sales," including six works by their artist Ron Aloni and three works by James Vanderberg. Neoteric Fine Art reported three sales and Lyons Wier Gallery noted that they sold multiple works by Edie Nadelhaft. Both Red Truck Gallery and Timothy Yarger Fine Art confirmed sales and Vered Contemporary said that their, "Modernists did very well." Joshua Liner Gallery did well with their showing of Guy Yanani and said that it was, "a strong fair." Reserve Ames reported selling works by Laurie Reid and Clarie Gill. Joy Wai Gallery reported 20k in sales and Gitana Rosa Gallery said that they sold the work of Bruno Perillo and has future sales coming soon from those they met during the weekend. 101/Exhibit had a solo booth of Ian Ingram they happily reported sales and the close of fair as well.

PRESS OFFICE

With the sales streaming in and new connections being made, visitors could also find relaxation in Norwood's VIP Lounge and also at the outdoor café.

Roberta's, Red Hook Lobster Pound, and Van Leeuwen Artisan Ice Cream were this year's gourmet food vendors and fair visitors were able to enjoy an afternoon of art viewing with delicious food and drinks to cap of the experience.

Art Market Hamptons has become the Hamptons fair that brings a touch of New York City and Brooklyn's hippest to the elite audience of the Hamptons. Selecting the finest dealers of modern and contemporary art to present thoughtful and selective booths is at the heart of Art Market Hamptons. Creating a mood, setting and site for connections to be made and art to be explored is the goal of Art Market Hamptons and we are happy to report that this year's sales, crowds, and positive press coverage attest to meeting these goals and to making next years fair just as memorable.
